

each county as the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates shall have designated as aforesaid, as provided in the first section of this article.

Treasurer to pay.

3. The treasurer, upon the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay to the publishers of the newspapers in which the Public General Laws shall have been published in conformity with the provisions aforesaid, the compensation to which they may respectively be entitled for publishing said General Laws, and said warrant shall be issued within six months from the time of publication as aforesaid; provided, however, that not more than six hundred dollars shall be paid for the publication of said laws in any one county, and that not more than eighteen hundred dollars shall be paid for the publication of said laws as heretofore provided in the city of Baltimore.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 252.

AN ACT for the relief of the infant devisee of Thomas H. Goslin, late of Dorchester county, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Legislature of Maryland that in December, anno domini eighteen hundred and eighty-one, Thomas H. Goslin, of Dorchester county, departed this life seized and possessed of a valuable real and personal estate, and having executed his last will and testament, by which he devised the aforesaid property, after the payment of his just debts, to his infant children, four in number, and that after the smaller parcels of real estate had been sold by the executors of said will, and had proved insufficient, together with the whole of said decedent's personal estate, to discharge all of his just debts, but, on the contrary, there remained a deficiency of nearly four thousand dollars to be supplied by a sale of his home farm, or so