

assessment to the owners thereof, in the county or city in which such owners may respectively reside.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 261.

AN ACT to repeal article seventy-six of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Public Printer," and to enact an article in lieu thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That article seventy-six of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Public Printer," be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted and substituted therefor:

Repealed and substituted therefor.

SECTION 1. And be it enacted, That on or before the first day of October, prior to the meeting of each and every session of the General Assembly of this State, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, and he is hereby required, to advertise for ten days in three daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, having as near as he can ascertain the largest circulation, that he will receive bids for the printing for the General Assembly at its then next ensuing session; that the amount of printing so to be contracted for shall be for four thousand copies of the Governor's message, in English; five hundred copies of the Governor's message, in German; three thousand reports of the Comptroller of the Treasury; one thousand reports of the State Treasurer; one thousand reports of the Adjutant General; two thousand school reports; one thousand reports of Insurance Commissioner; one thousand reports of State Tax Commissioner; one thousand reports of State Board of Health; one thousand reports of State Fish Commissioner; fifteen hundred copies of the Daily Journal of Senate; fifteen hundred copies of the Daily Journal of the House of Delegates; two hundred each Senate Bill; two hundred each House Bill; two thousand yeas Receive bids for printing.

Number of copies.