

Authority for notice.

the call or notice is published, and the persons shall be named therein who are to act as judges of the election at each poll where such election is to be holden, and the said persons shall be legal voters of the ward for which they are named; said notice shall likewise declare the qualifications of the persons to vote at such elections, provided that such prescribed qualifications shall not be inconsistent with those expressed in this act.

How published

SEC. ... Be it enacted, That the notice required by section one of this act shall be published in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation, printed in the city for which the election is called, and shall be posted in at least three public places in the ward in which such elections are to be held, at least five days prior thereto.

Elect to invoke protection.

SEC. ... Be it enacted, That any voluntary political association or party in the city of Baltimore that shall elect to invoke the protection and subject itself to the provisions of this act, shall at the time of publication of notice provided for in section one of this act, declare that such election therein called will be held in pursuance of and subject to the provisions of this act, under the provisions of the Code of Public Local Laws, relating to primary elections; and in the event such notice last aforesaid shall be published, and not otherwise, the provisions of this act shall be applicable and in force in respect to said election.

Appoint
judges.

SEC. ... Be it enacted, That at least three days before the holding of any election, as provided by section first of this act, the delegates to the city convention of each ward of Baltimore city shall appoint three persons to act as the judges of the election, which judges shall be selected impartially from among the friends of each candidate seeking a nomination as far as it is possible to do so, and two persons as clerks of the election, which clerks shall represent, as nearly as possible, the interests of opposing candidates, be above the age of twenty-one years, and shall enter the names of voters, separately and plainly, on books provided for that purpose, at each place for the holding of such election; and if at the place appointed for the holding of any such election, and within ten minutes after the time fixed for beginning the same, any one or