

day in the same election; and it shall be the duty of said judges of election, if such objection be not withdrawn, to administer to the person so offering to vote, an oath or affirmation, to the general effect that he will truly testify to all matters relating to his said qualifications under said published call, his residence, citizenship of the United States, receiving or being promised, directly or indirectly, any money, fee or reward for his vote for any candidate, and whether he has voted at that or other polling place on that day at such election; it shall then be the duty of the judges of election to interrogate the person so objected to as to all matters in particular upon which said objections was made, and generally as to all of said qualifications; if the person so objected to shall refuse to answer such questions after said oath or affirmation shall have been administered, it shall be the duty of the judges of election to reject such vote; but if such oath be taken and such questions be answered satisfactorily, and not contradicted successfully by the sworn testimony of other witnesses who may be called, it shall be the duty of the judges of election to admit the vote sworn to be qualified according to the terms of the call and the provisions of this act, having the word "sworn" noted opposite the party's name on the poll list; and any wilful violation of the provisions of this section by the judges of election shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, subject the party offending to punishment as prescribed in section five of this act; and any person who shall, upon taking such oath or affirmation, and under the examination herein authorized, wilfully make a false statement to a matter pertinent and material in such examination, shall be deemed guilty of the crime of perjury, and, on conviction, be punished as prescribed by law.

SEC. ... Be it enacted, That any person voting, who is not a citizen of the United States, or who is not qualified to vote in the ward wherein the election is held at the next coming State or municipal election, or any person who shall vote after objection is made and sustained as specified in section seven of this act, or any person who shall vote more than once at the same of different polls on the same day in the same election, whether such objection be made or not, shall be deemed guilty of a misde-

Administer
oath.

Judges to in-terrogate.

Penalty for wilful violation.

Unqualified
voters.