

Penalty for violation.

good faith of the druggist or pharmacist selling liquor thereunder; if any physician, druggist or pharmacist shall violate any provision or requirement of this sub-section shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty dollars and the costs of the prosecution, and shall stand committed till said fine and costs are paid; provided that if any druggist or pharmacist shall sell such liquor under any other than a proper or lawful prescription, he shall be deemed guilty of selling without a prescription, and shall be tried and fined as provided in section four of said chapter.

Must be signed by regular physician.

SUB-SECTION 2. If any person shall sign the name of a regular practicing physician to a prescription for such liquor, or shall sign his own name or the name of any other person to a prescription for liquor, he or such other person not being a regular practicing physician duly authorized to make such prescription, with intent to obtain, or to enable others to obtain liquor thereunder; or shall in any respect alter any prescription whereunder liquor is obtained, or is sought to be obtained; or shall obtain by means of a prescription such liquor for the use of any other person or persons than such as be named therein; or shall falsely and fraudulently obtain a prescription for such liquor, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty dollars and the costs of prosecution, and shall stand committed till fine and costs are paid.

Fraudulent prescriptions.

When to be drunk on premises.

SUB-SECTION 3. If such druggist or pharmacist shall permit any liquor obtained under a prescription to be drunk anywhere on his premises, except in case of sudden sickness, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined fifty dollars and the costs of the prosecution, and shall stand committed till fine and costs are paid.

Who is liable.

SUB-SECTION 4. Every druggist or pharmacist shall be liable for the acts of his clerks, agents or assistants with reference to the matters and things embraced in chapter four hundred and sixty-two aforesaid and in this act.

SUB-SECTION 5. The offence created by the foregoing sub-sections may be tried in the Circuit Court for said county upon presentment or indictment