

and fifty-one, the date of the last payment, as shown by the books of the Comptroller, to the twenty-second day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, the date of the death of the said Dorothy Stover, the said Eliza S. Jones being the widow of Captain John C. Jones, the only son and heir of the said Dorothy Stover, deceased, by her former husband, the said Major John Courts Jones.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 311.

AN ACT to enlarge the boundaries of Spaulding's District, in Prince George's county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the election district in Prince George's county known as Spaulding's district be and the same is hereby enlarged by the addition of part of the election district known as Marlboro district, as follows: Beginning for the same on the District of Columbia and Upper Marlboro' turnpike, opposite the residence of Thomas W. Smoot, near Centreville, and extending north-eastwardly to and including the dwelling-house of Elisha E. Berry; thence in the same direction to the point on the public road leading from Forestville to William Shuler's farm, where the private road which leads to the farm and residence of J. T. Berry intersects the same; thence with said public road north-westwardly to the aforesaid turnpike at William T. Moore's blacksmith shop; thence with said turnpike to the beginning.

Election district enlarged.

Metes and bounds.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.