

for slopes and embankments, and shall have as many sets of tracks, switches and turnouts and branches, not exceeding ten miles in length, as the said president and directors may deem necessary; and the said president and directors may cause to be made, or contract with others for making said railroad tracks, switches, turnouts and branches, or any part thereof, including building of bridges, necessary warehouses, depots and stations, and fixing scales and weights, and all work whatsoever which may be necessary to the proper completion and working of said road and branches, and may acquire any land, earth, stone, gravel or other material required for any of the purposes aforesaid, by agreement with the owners thereof, or by condemnation, as provided in sections one hundred and seventy, one hundred and seventy-one, one hundred and seventy-two, one hundred and seventy-three, one hundred and seventy-four and one hundred and seventy-five, of article twenty-six of the Code, entitled "Corporations," and all said sections shall apply to this railroad company.

Contract with others.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That whenever in the construction of the said road or roads, or branches, it shall be necessary to cross or intersect any established road or way, it shall be the duty of the president and directors of said company so to construct the said road or roads, or branches, across the established road or way as not to impede the passage or transportation of persons or property along the same; or when it shall be necessary to pass through the land of any individual, it shall also be their duty to provide for each individual proper wagon-ways across said road or roads from one part of his land to the other.

Construction of road.

Provide wagon-ways.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors, or a majority of them, shall have power to purchase with the funds of said company, and place on any railroad constructed by them under this act, all engines, cars and carriages of any description whatsoever which they may deem necessary or proper for the purpose of transportation on said railroad; and they shall have power to charge for the transportation of persons, goods, produce, merchandise or property of any kind whatsoever, transported by them along said railroad, any sum

Purchase engines, &c.

Charge per mile.