

omit or neglect to fill up, repair and restore to its former condition any such street, road or highway, or part thereof, or shall omit or neglect to remove and take away any dirt or rubbish which may remain after such laying, repairing or removing of such pipes, or the filling up and restoration aforesaid, for more than two days after the time designated by the said county commissioners, or their said duly constituted agent, the said company shall, for every such omission or neglect, forfeit and pay for the use of said county commissioners such sum, not exceeding twenty dollars, as any justice of the peace for Baltimore county or Baltimore city shall adjudge, and warrant to be issued in the name of said county commissioners against the said company; and also the sum of five dollars, to be recovered as aforesaid, in addition for every day the said company shall neglect or omit to do so after the issuing of such warrant for the recovery of said penalty of twenty dollars.

Forfeiture for neglect.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the said act for the protection of the property of the said company, and imposing penalties for unlawful interference with the same, shall be applicable in Baltimore county in like manner as in the city of Baltimore.

Where applicable.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said company be and hereby is prohibited from entering into any consolidations, combinations or contract with any other gas company whatever; and any attempt so to do, or to make such combinations or contracts as herein prohibited, shall be utterly null and void.

Prohibited from consolidating.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.