

Chapter 341.

AN ACT to authorize and require Columbus J. Shipley, of Baltimore county, to grant unto the Trustees of the Catonsville Methodist Episcopal Church, by a sufficient deed, a certain lot of ground in Baltimore county.

WHEREAS the lot of ground on which said Catonsville Methodist Episcopal Church now stands was, very many years ago, transferred by deed by Rebecca Somerville to Richard Herbert, Wm. Marr, Jacob Ruff, John Liddard and Columbus J. Shipley, the building committee of said church; and whereas said Columbus J. Shipley is the sole survivor of said committee, and it is desired to have the sanction of the General Assembly to enable him to give a good and sufficient deed therefor to the trustees of said church, therefore—

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Columbus J. Shipley, sole surviving member of said building committee, be and he is hereby authorized, empowered and required to grant and convey unto said Trustees of the Catonsville Methodist Episcopal Church aforesaid, by a good and sufficient deed, in fee simple, and to their successors and assigns, the said lot of ground in said deed referred to, and on which or a part thereof said church now stands; and said Columbus J. Shipley is hereby clothed with full powers to make such deed, and to do all that is requisite for the acknowledgment, execution and recording thereof, and in accordance with the intention of this act.

Empowered to grant and convey.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.
