

and every offence; and it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace, upon information received and confirmed by the oath of a credible witness, to have any person violating any of the provisions of this section arrested and committed to the county jail, unless he or they shall give sufficient bail or recognizance, with sureties to be approved by said justice of the peace, to appear before the Circuit Court at the next succeeding term thereof, to answer said charge.

Have person arrested and committed.

SUB-SECTION 2. On the day of the election for representative in Congress of the United States, to be held in November, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, the judges of the election in Fairmount district, number six, in Somerset county, shall receive tickets written or printed from the legal voters thereof, labeled "For license" or "Against license," and shall deposit said tickets in a separate box provided for that purpose, and said tickets so received shall be counted and returned and certified according to law to the clerk of the Circuit Court of Somerset county, and the same notice shall be given by the sheriff of this election as is required in the case of other elections, and said elections shall in all respects be subject to and governed by the election laws of this State, so far as they are applicable thereto.

Ballots—how prepared.

Election—
how conducted.

SUB-SECTION 3. If at said election as named in the preceding section, a majority of the votes in the said Fairmount district, number six, hereinbefore mentioned, shall be against license, then the provisions of this act shall continue in force in said district, and no license shall be granted therein to sell or otherwise dispose of any intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors as provided against in the first sub-section thereof; but if a majority of the voters of said district shall be for license, then license may be granted to sell spirituous liquors in the same manner as now allowed by chapter four hundred and twenty-five of the acts of eighteen hundred and seventy four.

How effective.

When license
may be granted.

SUB-SECTION 4. All licenses granted after the passage of this act in said district hereinbefore mentioned shall cease and become void after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the Comptroller of the Treasury shall refund

Licenses—
when to cease.