

able property of said county a sum sufficient to pay for the same, not exceeding the sum of three hundred dollars.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 372.

AN ACT to repeal section fifty-six of article seventy-five of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Pleading, Practiee and Process," as enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter three hundred and forty-six, and to re-enact said section with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That section fifty-six of article seventy-five of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Pleading, Practice and Process," as enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter three hundred and forty-six, be and the said section is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows, viz:

[†]Repealed and re-enacted.

56. It shall not be necessary, in the execution of any warrant of resurvey, to locate by actual survey the whole of any tract or parcel of land; but it shall be sufficient to locate, by actual survey, the beginning or any call or other object by which the location of the tract may be proved, and such portion of the lines connected therewith as may be necessary to show the parts of the land in controversy, and the questions to be tried and proved by witnesses to be examined in the cause; and all other lines and objects may be located by protraction on the plats by the party making the survey; and such locations, by protraction, when made by either party, shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of any object or line so located, unless the same shall be differently located by the other party either by actual survey or by protraction; and in case it is so differently located, the jury

Resurveys.

Located by protraction.