

of the Peace and Constables," as the same was enacted by the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, chapter one hundred and eight, entitled an act to add an additional article to the Code of Public Local Laws, to be entitled Garrett county.

SEC. 46 A. Any person or persons in Garrett county, Maryland, while fishing, hunting or any other mode of amusement, having a tent, camp or any other kind of shelter, who shall, by his or their disorderly, noisy or rude conduct, injure, disturb or annoy any of the people of said county in their person or property, it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace of said county, with or without complaint first made to him, to issue his warrant to any constable or private citizens (if necessary) of the county, for the apprehension of such offender or offenders; and if found guilty, when brought before him or any other justice of the peace of said county of violating the provisions of this section, he and they shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty dollars for each offence, and in default of the payment of said fine or fines he and they shall stand committed to the county jail for thirty days, or till paid, whichever shall first happen; and the necessary jurisdiction and powers are hereby conferred upon said justices of the peace for all such cases, provided the right of appeal shall be secured to any person or persons affected by this section in the same manner as now exists by law in other cases.

Apprehend
offenders.

Jurisdiction
and powers.

SEC. 46 B. That all fines accruing from the foregoing section shall be paid over to the treasurer of the public schools of said county, to be used as other school funds.

Fines—how paid over.

SEC. 46 C. That if it shall happen the name or names of such offender or offenders are unknown, he or they shall be proceeded against accordingly, with such personal description as will identify him or them.

How proceeded against

Approved May 3, 1882.