

the privilege to any person or persons to shoot from said blind upon the days specified in section one of this act.

SEC. 3. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to establish a blind, after said blind having been licensed, at a point on said river nearer to said blind than three hundred yards.

Distance to establish.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding sections, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Anne Arundel county, shall be fined a sum not less than five nor more than twenty dollars for each offence, with the costs of prosecution for the same; provided, that an additional fine of five dollars shall be imposed upon the owner of any blind who shall establish the same at a point nearer than three hundred yards from any blind already established and licensed, for each week said blind shall remain, after due notice has been given to remove the same by the owner of the blind first established and licensed.

Fine for violation.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall trespass upon any blind established and licensed by this act, by shooting at wild fowl from the same without the consent of the owner of said blind, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Anne Arundel county, shall pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars, with the costs of prosecution, and stand committed to the county jail until said fine and costs are paid.

Not to trespass.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the money arising from licenses issued, as well as all fines and penalties imposed and collected under this act, shall be paid over to the county school commissioners, to be by them applied to the use and benefit of the public schools in Anne Arundel county.

Money—how applied.

Approved May 3, 1882.