

Academy or School; and whereas the same was built in Manchester, now Carroll county, Maryland, and has become a local institution; and whereas the number of trustees provided for in the original act have been found cumbersome for the successful carrying out of the requirements of said act; and whereas doubts may arise whether the rights and powers of said academy, by virtue of said act of Assembly, as a corporation, has not been forfeited by reason of the failure of the present board of trustees to meet the requirements of said charter, therefore—

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled “An to incorporate certain trustees therein named to build an academy or school-house in or near Manchester, in Baltimore county,” to hold and govern the same in fact and in law to all intents and purposes connected with said institution, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and twenty eight, chapter one hundred, be and is hereby revived, and that the same institution is hereby revived and continued, and that Jacob Campbell, George Everhart the third, George Shower, John Everhart, Dr. Theodore A. Shower, John H. Lamotte, David H. Hoffacker, Emanuel Shaffee, Henry Reagle, George Burns and Adam Shower, be and they are hereby declared to be the legal trustees of said academy, and shall have all the privileges of the aforesaid act as if the same had not been forfeited and lost.

Act revived.

Legal trustees.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, That the name and style of the corporation established by the first section of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred, be and the same is hereby altered from that of the Trustees of the “Manchester United Academy of Baltimore county” to that of the Trustees of the Manchester Academy of Carroll county, Maryland, and by the latter of said names shall hereafter be known and called, and that the words “with perpetual succession” be stricken out.

Name altered.

SEC. 3. Be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the number of trustees provided in the original act, to which this is amendatory, be and the same are reduced in number to five, who

Trustees reduced to five.