

each and every offence, in the discretion of said justice of the peace, one-half of which fine shall be paid to the informer, the other half to the school fund of the county where such conviction was rendered; and in default of payment of such fine, such person or persons so convicted shall be sent to the county jail where such act was committed for not less than ten nor more than thirty days, at the discretion of the justice of the peace.

Fine—how disposed of.

Effective.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act take effect from the day of its passage.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 412.

AN ACT to transfer the Armory Lot at Easton, Maryland, belonging to the State, with the buildings thereon, to the Commissioners of Talbot county, for the use of said county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the armory at Easton has ceased to be used as a depository of public arms, and is no longer occupied by the State for any purpose, article eight of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Armories," having been repealed; and whereas the said lot is situate on the public square in the town of Easton, owned by Talbot county, whereon the court house, jail and other buildings of said county are erected—

Armory lot transferred.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the armory lot in the town of Easton, belonging to the State, with the buildings thereon, be and the same is hereby transferred, assigned and conveyed to the Commissioners of Talbot county, for the use of said county; and the said commissioners are hereby authorized to remove the said buildings, or to dispose of the same in any manner that in their discretion the interest of said county may require; provided the present buildings on said armory lot shall not be used for any purpose that will be offensive or annoying to persons living near said lot, and that nothing of an objectionable char-

How used.