tion, and upon and from all present members of the same who shall agree in writing to be so assessed, such sums of money, from time to time, as shall be prescribed and made payable for that purpose by any by-law or by-laws of said corporation; such fund, so collected, shall be held and administered by the said corporation apart and separate from all other corporate funds, and upon the decease of any members who shall have been assessed and shall have contributed as aforesaid, shall be applied to the use and benefit of their respective widows and families, in such manner and subject to such rules and regulations, as to person and as to time, mode and amount of payment, as shall be prescribed by any by-laws of said corporation to be adopted for that end.

How administered.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Baltimore Corn and Flour Exchange be and it is hereby authorized to pass any and all by-laws which it may deem necessary and proper to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to promote and serve the purposes of the same.

Pass by-laws.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That no part or increase of the fund by this act authorized to be created, shall at any time be liable to attachment or execution or other process, proceeding or demand whatsoever, for or on account of any debt or liability of the said corporation or of any member thereof, or of any person beneficially entitled to or allowed any money or payment out of said fund upon or after the decease of any such member.

Not liable to attachment.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.