

When unlawful to sell.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if it shall be found by the returns of said judges of election and the proclamation of said clerk, that the majority of all the votes cast in any one or more of the election districts of said county are against the sale of intoxicating liquors, then it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, house, corporation, company or association to sell directly or indirectly at any place within the limits of the said district or districts of said county, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, or alcoholic bitters, after the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three; but if it shall be found by the returns of said judges of election and the proclamation of said clerk of said court, that the majority of all the votes cast, as prescribed in the preceding second section, in any one or more of the election districts of said Howard county, have been cast for the sale of intoxicating liquors, then the same shall be sold or prohibited, as now permitted to be sold or prohibited by law, and not otherwise, in such district or districts in said county.

Sold or prohibited.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of any election district of said Howard county where a majority of all the votes cast shall have been cast against the sale of intoxicating liquors, on or after the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three, he, she, they or it shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay on the first conviction a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution; or instead of such fine imprisonment in the county jail for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court; and on the second and every subsequent conviction not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and in addition to such fine, imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, in the discretion of the court; and on failure to pay any such fine as herein de-