

case shall be in accordance with the provisions of section seventy-one and seventy-two of article eleven of the Revised Code of the Public Laws of Maryland so far as the same may be applicable; the office of any collector of taxes against whom or whose bond judgment shall be entered as aforesaid may be declared vacant by the county commissioners, and said vacancy filled by the appointment of another collector.

May be declared vacant.

SECTION 49. For the purpose of enabling the county commissioners of that county to pay the said officers, jurors and witnesses who may be in attendance upon the sessions of the Circuit Court for said county during the balance of the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, and to pay arrearages of expenses already incurred and not paid by the attendance of said officers, jurors and witnesses, their allowance in cash, without thereby increasing materially the tax levy of said county, the said county commissioners are hereby authorized, from time to time, as may be necessary, to borrow not exceeding five thousand dollars, and to that end they are empowered to issue the bonds of said county in sums of not less than one hundred dollars, bearing not exceeding five per cent. interest, payable semi-annually on the first of April and the first of October respectively, the said bonds to be payable at the end of twenty years, but redeemable at the pleasure of said commissioners, in whole or in part, at any time after five years; the said bonds to be signed by the said commissioners, countersigned and registered by the clerk and treasurer of said board; not to be sold for less than the par value thereof; to be exempt from all taxation, and the interest thereon shall be received by the collectors in payment of county taxes, and the said commissioners shall, from time to time, levy in advance upon the assessable property of said county such sums as may be necessary for the prompt payment of the semi-annual interest due on said bonds, and also for the payment of the principal thereof when the same may become due, or when they desire to redeem the same; all moneys received from the sale of said bonds shall be paid to the said treasurer, and all money levied for the payment of the principal and interest of the same shall be levied for the use of said treasurer; and any collector failing to

Authorized
to borrow.

Bonds—when payable.

To whom paid.