

others, especially when he had done all in his power to have the laws observed, the said Philip Loessell petitioned his Excellency, the Governor of Maryland, to remit said fine, but the Governor refused to do so, as the money had been paid into the State Treasury; and whereas, the said Governor has since recommended, under date March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, that said fine be remitted; now, therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer of this State to pay Philip Loessell, of Baltimore city, the sum of three hundred and eighty-eight dollars and forty cents, being the amount of the fine and costs paid by him for alleged violation of the oyster law.

Whom to pay.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved May 3, 1882.

Chapter 483.

AN ACT to repeal section one of chapter two hundred and forty-four of the acts passed at the January session of eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled "An act to regulate fences in the third election or Vienna district of Dorchester county," and to re-enact the same with amendments so as to include part of district number one or the Fork.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section one of chapter two hundred and forty-four, entitled "An act to regulate fences in the third election or Vienna district of Dorchester county," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to include all that part of the first election or Fork district lying on the west side of the northwest fork of the Nanticoke river.

Repealed and re-enacted.