

for Dorchester county, from the judgment of the justice of the peace as in other cases provided by law; provided that a hedge fence, or any other kind of fence that shall, in the judgment of the assessors appointed to value the damages, be sufficient to turn or keep out live stock, shall be considered a sufficient and legal fence within the meaning of this section; and provided that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent any person having a sufficient fence, as hereinbefore provided, from impounding, &c., any trespassing live stock as now provided by law, only as a part of his proceedings; any person in said districts so trespassed upon, and having a sufficient fence as aforesaid, shall have the sufficiency of his fence passed upon as herein provided, before proceeding to sell the stock impounded by him, and provided that the provisions of this act shall only apply to outer fences and boundary fences in the districts aforesaid, and not to any persons internal fences upon his own property.

Right of appeal.

Legal fence.

How construed.

Have fence passed upon.

Approved May 3, 1882.