

powers of a justice of the peace; he shall see that the laws and ordinances of the corporation are duly executed; he may require any officer of the corporation entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of moneys of the corporation to submit to him a statement of such officers' account as often as said burgess or commissioners may deem necessary; he shall report annually in writing to the commissioners the general condition of the town, with the moneys received and expended, which report shall be posted up in not less than two of the most public places of the town; he shall sign, or refuse to sign, all laws and ordinances passed by the commissioners, with his reasons in case refusing to sign, and if said law or ordinance so unsigned by him be again put upon its passage and receive the votes of four-fifths of the commissioners, it shall become a law without the approval of the burgess.

Powers of burgess.

Report annually.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That all other officers, or assistants to officers necessary to execute the powers of said corporation, shall be provided and appointed as by ordinance of the burgess and commissioners shall be directed.

Other officers.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That all moneys arising from taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by this act or ordinance of the burgess and commissioners, shall be appropriated only to the uses of said corporation as may by order or ordinance be directed.

How appropriated.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by the laws and ordinances of said burgess and commissioners shall be recovered before the burgess or any justice of the peace residing within the corporate limits of said town upon a warrant issued against the offender, directed to the bailiff of said corporation, or any constable of said county, in the corporate name of said town, and shall be collected by judgment and execution in the same manner and with the same costs and fees as provided for in cases of small debts, and with such penalties to the officers for non-performance of duty as in such cases prescribed by the laws of the State; and said fines, penalties and forfeitures shall be paid by the officer collecting the same to the clerk and treasurer of said town; providing that if the offence be a breach of the peace

How recovered.

Whom to pay to.