Chapter 492.

AN ACT to repeal chapter three hundred and seventy-three of the acts of eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled "An act to repeal and re-enact chapter four hundred and thirty-nine of the acts of eighteen hundred and seventy-four," entitled "An act to regulate the issuing of licenses for the sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors in this State," and re-enact the same with amendments.

WHEREAS R. F. Willett, of Charles county, having applied to the grand jury for the November term of the Circuit Court of said county, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one, for a recommendation to sell spirituous and fermented liquors at White Plains station; and whereas the said grand jury having failed to grant such recommendation; and whereas having presented a petition to the General Assembly of Maryland, signed by a majority of those composing the said grand jury, and by a large number of respectable tax payers praying that the clerk of the Circuit Court of said county be empowered to issue to said Willett a license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors, at said station; therefore—
