

and it shall then be the duty of the said county commissioners to forthwith negotiate the sale of a sufficient amount of said bonds to raise the amount needed, and shall pay the same on the requisition of the building committee.

Negotiate sale.

Duty of clerk.

How levied.

Give bond.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the said board of county commissioners shall, in addition to his other duties, act as treasurer to said board, and shall receive and disburse all sums levied by virtue of this act for the payment of the annual interest on the bonds hereby authorized to be issued; and he shall receive such compensation therefor as may be fixed by the said county commissioners, and shall give bond with security to the State of Maryland in such penalty as may be prescribed by the said county commissioners, to be approved by the judges of the Circuit Court, for the faithful performance of his duties in this behalf; and all moneys levied for the purpose of paying said interest shall be levied by the county commissioners for the use of said treasurer, and paid to him by the collectors of taxes; when hereafter the said county commissioners shall levy any sum or sums for the payment of the principal of the said court-house bonds, they shall likewise levy it for the use of the said treasurer, who shall then be required to give bond in a penalty to be presented by the said commissioners, to be approved as above, and double any amount to come into his hands for disbursement in any one year, the bond or bonds of the said treasurer to be renewed whenever the said commissioners may so require, and also to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county.

Approved May 3, 1882.