No. 14.

Joint resolutions of the Legislature of Maryland relative to the obstructions to the harbor of Annapolis, Maryland.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the government of the United States has expended large sums of money in erecting buildings and enlarging the grounds of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, and in purchasing ground and erecting buildings for experimental purposes connected with the navy at Fort Madison; and whereas it is desirable that the bars which cause an obstruction to United States and other vessels of large draught, in entering the harbor of Annapolis, should be removed or cut
