

eight of the acts of the General Assembly of eighteen hundred and seventy, be and are hereby repealed, and the following substituted in lieu thereof:

2. That the male citizens of said village of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the United States, who shall have resided in said village for and during the space of six months preceding, shall, on the second Monday of April in each and every year, at the usual place of holding elections in said village, elect five commissioners, one of whom shall be designated by the voters as president, who shall have resided within the corporate limits of the same one year next preceding the election; the said commissioners shall enter upon the discharge of their duties within ten days after the election.

Elect commissioners.

When to enter upon duties.

Sixth. The president shall preside at the meetings of said commissioners and preserve decorum, give such directions as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this charter, and perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the commissioners; in case of his death the vacancy shall be filled by the surviving commissioners until the next election for such officers; the commissioners may allow such compensation to the president for his services as to them may seem right and just.

Preserve decorum.

Vacancy—how filled.

SEC. 3 And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage.

Effective.
