

dred and sixty-six, be composed of eleven Trustees, four of whom shall be members of the State Board of Education, to represent the State's interest as joint owner, and the other seven shall be elected by a majority of the private stockholders, in the manner now provided by law, six of whom shall be residents of the State of Maryland, and one of the District of Columbia.

Sec. 5. Be it enacted, That the said Board of Trustees hereinbefore provided for, shall possess the same and like powers and authority, with the Trustees authorized to be appointed by the original acts to which this is amendatory. Powers of Trustees.

Sec. 6. Be it enacted, That the said Board of Trustees shall have power and authority to appoint and select visitors for said Institution, one from each county and two from the city of Baltimore, with authority to attend the meetings of said Trustees, but without the right of voting in the management of the said Maryland Agricultural College. Power to select visitors.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That a sum of money not exceeding ten per cent upon the amount received by this State, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, chapter one hundred and thirty, which is authorized to be expended for the purchase of lands, for sites or experimental farms, is hereby expressly reserved and set apart, to be paid into the Treasury of the State, to reimburse the said State in part, for the amount appropriated to the said Maryland Agricultural College, by this Act; and that so much of the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter one hundred and seventy-eight, as is inconsistent with this section of this Act, be, and the same is hereby repealed. Sum reserved.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage. In force.