

than double that imposed on such person or persons on the last preceding conviction, and his, her or their license, if any were issued, shall be declared null and void by the court, and no new license shall be issued to such person or persons for a period of two years from the time of such conviction, nor to any one else to carry on said business wherein he is in anywise interested, as before provided for the second violation of the provision of this section, one half of all the fines to be imposed under this section shall be paid to the State, and the other half to the informer; this article is not to apply to milk or ice dealers in supplying their customers, or to apothecaries when putting up bona fide prescriptions.

Prohibited from keeping open. 180. It shall not be lawful to keep open or use any dancing saloon, opera house, ten-pin alley, barber saloon, livery stable (except for funeral purposes) or ball alley within this State on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, and any person or persons or body politic or corporate, who shall violate any provisions of this section or cause or knowingly permit the same to be violated by a person or persons in his, her, their or its employ, shall be liable to indictment in any court of this State having criminal jurisdiction and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars in the discretion of the court for the first offence, and if convicted a second time for a violation of this section, the person or persons or body politic or corporate shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days in the discretion of the court, and in case of any conviction or convictions under this section subsequent to the second, such person or persons, body politic or corporate, shall be fined on each occasion a sum at least double that imposed upon him, her, them, or it on the last preceding conviction, and be imprisoned not less than thirty nor more than sixty days in the discretion of the court, one-half of all fines to be imposed under this section shall be paid to the State and the other half to the informer.

Non-prohibition. Sec. 2. Be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prohibit barbers or livery stable keepers from the prosecution of their