

the lands or any portion thereof that may be conveyed by deed, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded to the United States of America as an addition to the site of the Naval School at Annapolis, and the water, water rights and all other rights appertaining thereto, together with the streets or parts of streets included therein, whenever the same or such portion thereof shall be so conveyed, be, and the same are hereby vested in the United States of America, for military and naval purposes, the whole not to exceed the lots and parcels of land comprehended within the following courses and bounds, viz: beginning at the northeast side of Scott street and the eastern extremity thereof, at the waters edge of the harbor of Annapolis, where is erected the Naval School wall, and running thence southwestwardly with the shores of the harbor to the northeast side of King George's street and the eastern extremity thereof, thence northwestwardly with the said side of King George's street to the termination thereof on the northwest side of Tabernacle street, thence in a straight line northwestwardly by extending the northeast side of King George's street through the lot of ground in and obstructing that extension, and through the College grounds to the creek on the northwest of these grounds thence northeastwardly, eastwardly and southeastwardly around the shores of the said creek and Severn river, to the inclosed grounds of the Naval School, which have been ceded to the United States, thence around these enclosed grounds and with the wall now enclosing the same, southwestwardly and southeastwardly to the beginning; provided, always, that this cession and jurisdiction are granted upon the express condition that this commonwealth shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and on the said ceded lands and territory, or the portion thereof that may be so as aforesaid conveyed, so far as that, all civil and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this State, against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without said lands and ceded territory, may be executed therein in the same way and manner as though this cession and consent had never been made and granted, except so far as such process may effect the real and personal property of the United States within the said ceded territory.

Proviso.