

which his dwelling house stands, and running and bounding with the south side of said avenue, north fifty-nine and one-half degrees, west sixty-six hundredths of a perch, to a stone, thence for the second line running so as to leave a street thirty-four feet in width, between said Lewis Shots' lot and the iron railing on the east side of the Court House enclosure, south six and one-half degrees west, eight and four-tenths perches to a stone, and thence for the third and last line, running south forty-eight and three-fourths degrees west, five and three-tenths perches, to a stone on the fourth line of the original Court House lot aforesaid.

In force. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

---

CHAPTER 77.

Passed Feb. 6, 1866. AN ACT to incorporate the Hagerstown Lumber and Coal Company.

Incorporated. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Peter B. Small, Joseph B. Loose, Henry Gantz, William H. Protzman, Benjamin A. Garlinger, Alpheus R. Appleman, Samuel F. Zeigler and their associates, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic by the name, style and title of the Hagerstown Lumber and Coal Company, and by such name and title shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, and to have and use a common seal, and the same to alter or break at pleasure, and granting and receiving in its corporate name, property, real, personal and mixed, and of holding, and improving, lands in this or any other State, and to obtain therefrom, any and all minerals, or other valuable substances, whether by mining or working, leasing or disposing of privileges to work