

CHAPTER 92.

Passed Feb. 6, 1866. AN ACT to prevent the sale of spirituous or fermented Liquors on or near the line of the Washington County Railroad during the time of its construction.

License not to be granted. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Washington county, shall grant no license to any person for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any time, or at any place within three miles of that portion of the line of Washington County Railroad, between Hagerstown and its terminus at Knoxville, for and during the period of time necessary for its construction, and any person selling any kind of intoxicating drinks, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to all the fines and penalties prescribed by the Code of Public Laws of Maryland for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license.

To whom not to apply, Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall not apply to a removal of license to any regular and well-conducted hotel, tavern or inn, that may have been, previous to the passage of this act, licensed and kept as such within the limits described in the first section of this act.

In force. Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.
