

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 144.

Passed Feb. 6, 1866. AN ACT to repeal the first section of the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter eighty-seven, and to amend and re-enact sections fifty-five, fifty-nine and sixty of the second article of the Code of Public Local Laws of Anne Arundel County, relating to the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors to minors in the City of Annapolis, and within five miles thereof.

Repealed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the first section of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, chapter eighty-seven, entitled, an Act to amend and re-enact sections fifty-five and fifty-eight of article second of the Code of Public Local Laws relating to the sale of spirituous liquors to minors and persons of color in the city of Annapolis be, and the same is hereby repealed, and that the said fifty-fifth section of the said article of the Code of Public Local Laws be, and the same is hereby amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Prohibited
from selling
or giving to minors.

Sec. 55. It shall not be lawful for any person, whether licensed to sell spirituous liquors or not, to sell, dispose of, barter or give, directly or indirectly, within the corporate limits of the city of Annapolis, or within five miles thereof, any spirituous or fermented liquors or cordials of any kind, or in any quantity whatever, to any youth or minor under the age of twenty-one years, without the written order of the parent or guardian of such minor, nor to any midshipman or student connected with or attached to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, or under orders to join or to leave said Academy, nor to any student connected with St. John's College; and any person violating the provisions of this section, shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel county, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, and also be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than five days, and be confined in the county jail until the said fine and costs of prosecution shall be paid.