

cepted Masons, shall revert to, vest in, and belong to the master, wardens and members of a Masonic Lodge, whenever such Lodge shall be organized in the said town, and they shall have immediate possession of the same, and all arrearages of rent unpaid, and their successors.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That each owner of real estate on Market street in said town, who has not already done so, shall within ninety days after he shall be thereto required by the President and Commissioners, pave with good brick in front of his or her premises on said street, a width of side walk not less than six feet, and upon failure to do so, the President and Commissioners shall cause the same to be done, and the expenses shall be levied and collected as other taxes in said town, from the property in the front of which such paving shall have been done. the County Commissioners of Caroline county shall cause to be laid, a pavement of good hard brick, in front of the public square, all the way on Market street, of not less than six feet in width, and likewise a pavement of good hard brick from the last named pavement to the court house door, of not less than twelve feet in width; and any person driving over either of said pavements so as aforesaid, laid by the County Commissioners, with horses, mules, carts, carriages or wagon, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars, and it is made the duty of the Bailiff of said town or Sheriff of said county, to arrest such person forthwith without warrant, and take him before a Justice of the Peace, whose duty it shall be to impose such fine, and upon his failure to pay said fine, the Justice of the Peace shall commit him to the County Jail until such fine be paid; and the bailiff, Sheriff or Justice of the Peace failing to discharge their duty in the premises, shall be liable to presentment and conviction in the Circuit Court for Caroline county, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not more than twenty dollars in the discretion of the court, each owner of property on Market street in said town shall continue to keep in good repair the pavement in front of his or her property on said street, and upon the failure of such duty, the board of Commissioners may, and it is made their duty to repair the same, and the cost of such repairing so done by them shall be assessed by said Commissioners on said property,

Owners required to pave

Fine,

Liable to presentment.