

timore, any Justice of the Peace of said city, and the Sheriff thereof, and jurors to be summoned from among the inhabitants of said city, and the Superior Court, of Baltimore city, and the clerk thereof, and all persons interested in the exercise of the said powers, shall have the same rights and privileges, as were conferred by said original Act of incorporation, upon any Justice of the Peace of any county in the State; and upon the Sheriff of any county, and upon jurors to be summoned from the inhabitants of any county, or upon any clerk of any court in relation to the road of the said Company; provided, nevertheless, That the said Company in changing the location of any part of its road or branches, as aforesaid, shall not be authorized to abandon the use of that part of the road formerly located, but shall continue to use the same, except where said abandonment is necessary; and provided, also, that the said Company shall, in altering the location of its road as aforesaid, within the city of Baltimore, so construct and make such line of newly located road as not to interfere with the free use of the streets of the said city, or with traveling thereon; and provided, also, that the said newly constructed Railroad shall not be laid along the length of any street, lane or alley of said city, without the consent of the Mayor and City Council, of Baltimore, thereto, being first had and obtained. Provisoes.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage. In force.