

and sixty-six, and there continue in session not exceeding thirty nor less than six consecutive days, Sundays excepted, having first given at least two weeks notice of said time in some newspaper or newspapers, if any are published in said County or City, and if none, then by advertisement set up at the Court House door, and other public places in said County, to hear and determine the complaints and appeals of persons who may consider themselves aggrieved by the valuation of said Assessors, and upon complaint of any person who may consider him or herself aggrieved by such valuation of his or her property, or that of any person under his or her charge, the said County Commissioners or Board of Control and Review, shall have full power and authority to examine any person or persons, and the party complaining on oath or affirmation as the case may be, touching the particulars or value of such property, and upon due examination or knowledge thereof, abate or increase the said valuation, and correct the returns accordingly, and may value property which has been by the Assessors excluded or omitted, and may, at any regular meeting of the Board thereafter, exercise the powers conferred by this section in the presence of the parties concerned or upon thirty days notice thereof being given at any time during the year next succeeding the passage of this Act.

County Commissioners empowered to call Assessors before them for the purpose of correcting valuations, &c.

Sec. 24. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners, and Appeal Tax Court or Board of Control and Review of Baltimore City, as the case may be, shall have power to call the several Assessors before them at the time limited for hearing appeals as aforesaid, or at such other time or times in their discretion as they shall think reasonable, for the purpose of correcting the valuation made by said Assessors, and they shall likewise have power and authority, and are hereby directed and required carefully to examine the several certificates, statements and returns of valuations in their respective Counties or City, and to correct the same, although no complaint or appeal be made to them; that each Assessor shall within the time hereinbefore limited for making the returns, make out and deliver to the County Commissioners of the County in which he resides, or to the Appeal Tax Court or Board of Control and Review of Baltimore