

CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to add additional sections to Chapter one hundred and ninety-seven, passed at the January Session, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, relating to Slaughter Creek Bridge in Dorchester county. Passed Jan. 29, 1866.

SECTION 5. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Dorchester county be hereby empowered and authorized to regulate the travel over said bridge; to bring action at law to recover damages against any person or persons, who may injure said bridge by violent or careless driving, by making fast thereto vessels or scows, or damaging the said bridge in whatsoever manner; the damage so recovered to be paid into the county Treasury. Regulate Travel.

Damage.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to repeal an Act passed January Session, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, entitled, an Act to amend article eleven of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled, "Frederick County," and re-enact the same with amendments. Passed Feb. 1, 1866.

WHEREAS, The sum of two hundred thousand thousand dollars was levied by the Rebel General, Jubal E. Early, on the City of Frederick, on the ninth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, with the alternative presented to the citizens to pay said sum or to have their town sacked by the rebel soldiery; and whereas, after consultation between the officers of the several banking institutions of said town, a large number of the citizens, and those of the corporate authorities that re- Preamble.