SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall take effect from the date of its passage.

CHAPTER 4.

Passed Jan. 29, 1866.

AN ACT supplementary to the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, chapter three hundred and fifty-three, entitled, "An Act to incorporate the President and Commissioners of the Town of Cecilton."

Preamble.

WHEREAS, an election was held during the month of May, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-four, for five Commissioners of the town of Cecilton, although the Act incorporating said town did not take effect until the first day of June thereafter; and whereas, the said Commissioners, believing their election to be lawful, performed certain corporate acts, which should be legalized; and whereas, the General Assembly of Maryland, at its January term eighteen hundred and sixty-five, passed a supplemental bill curing said defects, but the bill thus passed was never signed by the Governor; and whereas, under said original and supplemental acts, an election was held in the month of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, for five Commissioners of the said town; and whereas, the Commissioners thus elected have since qualified and performed corporate acts, which should be made valid; and whereas, a supplement to the aforesaid original law is necessary; Now, therefore,
