

cess Anne, Prince Edward, Prince William, Pulaski, Putnam, Randolph, Rappahannock, Roanoke, Scott, Smith, Southampton, Spottsylvania, Taylor, Upshur, Warren, Wayne, Wetzel, Wood, and Wythe, and the cities of Norfolk and Petersburg shall each elect one delegate :

The counties of Lee and Scott in addition to the delegate to be elected by each, shall together elect one delegate.

The following counties and cities shall compose election districts : Alleghany and Bath : Amelia and Nottoway : Logan, Boone, and Wyoming : Braxton and Nicholas : Charles City, James City, and New Kent : Cumberland and Powhatan : Doddridge and Tyler : Elizabeth City, Warwick, York, and the City of Williamsburg : Essex, and King and Queen : Fayette and Raleigh : Gilmer and Wirt, Greene and Orange : Greensville and Sussex : King George and Stafford : Lancaster and Northumberland : Mathews and Middlesex : Pleasants and Ritchie : Prince George and Surry : and Richmond and Westmoreland : each of which districts shall elect one delegate.

At the first general election under this constitution the county of Ohio shall elect three delegates, and the counties of Brooke and Hancock shall together elect one delegate ; at the second general election the county of Ohio shall elect two delegates and the counties of Brooke and Hancock shall each elect one delegate ; and so on, alternately, at succeeding general elections.

At the first general election the county of Russell shall elect two delegates, and the county of Tazewell shall elect one delegate ; at the second general election the county of Tazewell shall elect two delegates and the county of Russell shall elect one delegate ; and so on, alternately, at succeeding general elections.

The general assembly shall have power upon application of a majority of the voters of the county of Campbell to provide, that instead of the two delegates to be elected by said county, the town of Lynchburg shall elect one delegate and the residue of the county of Campbell shall elect one delegate.

3. The other house of the general assembly shall be called the senate, and shall consist of fifty members, to be elected for the term of four years ; for the election of whom, the counties, cities, and towns shall be divided into fifty districts, each county, city, and town of the respective districts, at the time of the first election of its delegate or delegates under this constitution, shall vote for one senator, and the sheriffs or other officers holding the election for each county, city, and town, within five days at farthest after the last election in the district, shall meet at the court house of the county or city first named in the district, and from the polls so taken in their respective counties, cities, and towns, return as senator the person who has received the greatest number of votes in the whole district. Upon the assembling of the senators so elected, they shall be divided into two equal classes, to be numbered by lot. The term of service of the senators of the first class shall expire with that of the delegates first elected under this constitution ; and of the senators of the second class at the expiration of two years thereafter ; and this alternation shall be continued, so that one-half of the senators may be chosen every second year.
