

shall be considered to have abandoned the leave to amend, and the cause shall proceed as if no application for such leave had been made. But where such amendment is made, and new facts are introduced, and the case is thus varied in any material respect, the defendant shall be at liberty to answer anew or demur to the bill as amended, within such time as the court or judge thereof may prescribe, after notice of the amendment made; and notice may, in all cases, be given by service of a copy of the bill as amended, upon the defendant, or upon his solicitor, if there be one; or it may be by subpoena; or if any of the parties defendant is an infant or non-sane defendant for whom a legal guardian or committee may have been required by the Court to appear, answer, and defend, or for whom a guardian ad litem may have been legally appointed, then such notice may be given by service of a copy of the bill as amended upon such legal guardian, committee, or guardian ad litem, or upon his solicitor, if there be one legally appointed. The mode of proceeding in default of answer to the matter of the amendment shall be the same as that in default of answer to the original bill; and the proceeding on answer or demurrer, filed to the amended bill, shall be the same as that on answer or demurrer to an original bill.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 550.

AN ACT to add thirteen new sections to Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Crimes and Punishments," to follow immediately after Section 350 of said Article, to be sub-titled "Uniform Machine Gun Act" and to be known as Sections 350A, 350B, 350C, 350D, 350E, 350F, 350G, 350H, 350I, 350J, 350K, 350L, 350M, respectively relating to the manufacture, sale and possession of machine guns and imposing imprisonment or fines for violations of the provisions thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That thirteen new sections be added to Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title
