

must show the model and serial number of the gun, the name, address and occupation of the person in possession, and from whom and the purpose for which, the gun was acquired. The registration data shall not be subject to inspection by the public. Any person failing to register any gun as required by this section, shall be presumed to possess the same for offensive or aggressive purpose.

Section 350I. Warrant to search any house or place and seize any machine gun possessed in violation of this Act, may issue in the same manner and under the same restrictions as provided by law for stolen property, and any court of record, upon application of the State's Attorney, shall have jurisdiction and power to order any machine gun, thus or otherwise legally seized, to be confiscated and either destroyed or delivered to a peace officer of the state or a political sub-division thereof.

Section 350J. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Section 350K. Uniformity of interpretation. This Act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Section 350L. Short title. This Act including Sections 350A to 350M may be cited as the Uniform Machine Gun Act.

Section 350M. Repeal. All Acts or parts of Acts which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Approved April 21, 1933.
