

no other compensation or commissions whatever, directly or indirectly, for the collection of said State and County taxes, and any profit accruing to said County Treasurer from the discounting of State or County taxes and interest received upon such deposits made as hereinafter provided shall be chargeable against him in the accounting and payment of his said salary as herein provided. That the said County Treasurer shall assume and pay the salaries or wages of the deputy treasurer or treasurers and all clerks, regular or special, employed in the actual collection of said taxes and the keeping of the books and records of said office, shall provide all office stationery and shall likewise bear the expenses of the printing of all delinquent tax notices, all other expenses necessary and incident to the discharge of the duty of said County Treasurer as imposed by this section shall be borne and paid by the County Commissioners of Washington County; including the furnishing of all books, papers and tax bills, the said County Commissioners shall likewise provide said County Treasurer with an office in the Court House in Hagerstown, Maryland, and shall furnish and properly equip the same in order that the records of said office may be safeguarded and kept. The duty is likewise imposed upon said County Commissioners of paying the premium on any and all bonds required of said County Treasurer either pursuant to the provisions of this Act or made necessary by the provisions of any other general, local or special law now in force or which may be hereafter enacted: That upon the expiration of the term of said County Treasurer, either elected or appointed, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, his obligations with reference to the collection of unpaid and uncollected taxes shall be such as is now provided by the General Laws of the State of Maryland. That upon the appointment of a County Treasurer pursuant to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the incumbent tax collector to deliver to said County Treasurer such records and papers pertaining to the office of tax collector as may be necessary and proper to expedite the work of the County Treasurer so elected or appointed, and likewise any County Treasurer appointed or elected pursuant to the provisions of this section shall deliver to his successor in office, such records, papers and books as it may be necessary and proper for such successor to have. Until the election of a County Treasurer pursuant to the provisions of this section the Governor of this State, upon the effective date of this Act, shall appoint a County Treasurer for Washington County who shall serve until