

his successor is duly elected and qualified as in this section provided, such appointee to be subject to all the requirements, obligations and duties as provided in this Act applicable to said County Treasurer, the person so appointed shall be entitled to receive the compensation herein provided for said County Treasurer. The abolition of the office of Tax Collector of Washington County as effected by this Act shall in no way be deemed or construed to relieve said Tax Collector of any and all obligations with reference to the collection of unpaid taxes, but such duty and obligation shall remain, and for the purpose of enforcing the collection and payment of said taxes, said former Tax Collector shall have all rights, remedies and actions necessary to accomplish the collection of said taxes as the same are now provided and available for the collection of State and County taxes under the provisions of any general, local or special Act.

805. It shall be the duty of every County Treasurer in Washington County, promptly to deposit any and all moneys by him received and collected in some bank or banking institution in Hagerstown, Maryland, the said place of deposit to be approved by the County Commissioners of Washington County, and in approving such place of deposit the said Commissioners shall prefer the bank or banking institution which shall agree to pay the highest rate of interest on daily balances of said deposits; provided, however, if two or more banks or banking institutions shall agree to pay the same rate of interest on said deposits, and the said rate of interest shall be the highest rate of interest offered by a bank or banking institution aforesaid, then the said Commissioners may prefer one of the said banks or banking institutions offering the highest rate of interest as aforesaid and approve the same; and provided further that the said County Commissioners of Washington County may require the bank or banking institution wherein the said deposits are placed, to give bond or deposit securities, to be approved by the said County Commissioners of Washington County, for the faithful performance of its trust.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of any and all general, special or local laws pertaining to the office of Tax Collector or Collector of Taxes are hereby made applicable to the office of County Treasurer hereby created and shall remain in full force and effect, except as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof,
