

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1929 and 1930 Editions), title "Baltimore County," subtitle "Justices of the Peace and Constables," said new section to be known as Section 392A, to follow immediately after Section 392 of said Article, and to read as follows:

392A. From among the Justices of the Peace provided for in Section 392 for the First or the Second or the Thirteenth Election Districts, the Governor shall designate one to be known as Justice of the Peace at Large No. 1; from among the Justices of the Peace provided for in Section 392 for the Third or the Eighth or the Ninth Election Districts the Governor shall also designate one to be known as Justice of the Peace at Large No. 2; and from among the Justices of the Peace provided for in Section 392 for the Twelfth or the Fourteenth or the Fifteenth Election Districts the Governor shall also designate one to be known as Justice of the Peace at Large No. 3; to the end that there may be designated three Justices of the Peace at Large for Baltimore County, to be selected from among, but not in addition to the Justices of the Peace provided for in Section 392. The said Justices of the Peace at Large shall be qualified, in addition to their usual powers as such Justices, to sit at any of the Station Houses in said county when the Justice of the Peace who is regularly assigned to any Station House may be absent, incapacitated or disqualified from serving in any particular case or cases, and said Justices of the Peace at Large shall so serve at said Station House only upon notice from the Station House Justice who may be incapacitated, absent or otherwise disqualified from serving, who shall in such case or cases request the Justice at Large from the nearest district to serve for him during such incapacity, absence or disqualification. When said Justices of the Peace at Large are required as above provided to sit at any Station House in the place and stead of the Justice of the Peace who is regularly assigned thereto, he shall receive as compensation for said services the sum of five dollars ($5.00) per day, which shall be paid him by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, upon approval by the State's Attorney.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That said Sections 393, 394, 396, 403, 405 and 407 of said Article 3, be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:
