

393. Each of said Justices of the Peace, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with security to be approved by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, in the following penalties, to wit: Justices of the Peace appointed for the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth and Eleventh Election Districts, in the penalty of five hundred dollars; Justices in the First, Third, Ninth, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Election Districts in the penalty of one thousand dollars; said bonds to be upon the condition that each of said Justices will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of Justice of the Peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners of Baltimore County, or to whomsoever else may be hereafter or otherwise designated by law as the proper recipient thereof, all fines, penalties and forfeitures, or the portion thereof which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid, and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the person or corporation entitled to receive the same all money belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as such Justice of the Peace.

394. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the appointment of the Justices of the Peace provided for in Section 392 of this Article, to select from the Justices so appointed one Justice of the Peace appointed from the First Election District to sit at the Station House at Catonsville; one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Third Election District to sit at the Station House at Pikesville; one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Ninth Election District to sit at the Station House at Towson; one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Twelfth Election District to sit at the Station House at Dundalk; one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Thirteenth Election District to sit at the Station House at Halethorpe; one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Fourteenth Election District to sit at the Station House at Fullerton, and one Justice of the Peace appointed from the Fifteenth Election District to sit at the Station House at Essex; each of said Justices so selected to sit at the Station Houses above enumerated, shall keep his office at the Station House, for which he was appointed, open and shall attend said Station House every day (Sunday excepted), at such hours and times as his duties may require, or as he may be required by the County Commissioners or by the State's Attorney for Bal-
