

dred and twenty-nine, payable on demand, note for eight hundred seventy-five dollars, dated August eleventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, payable on demand, note for two thousand, three hundred fifty dollars, dated September twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, payable on demand.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That before the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall issue or sell any of the aforesaid bonds they shall first submit to the qualified voters of Princess Anne at a special election to be held on the sixth day of June, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, the question as to whether said bonds shall be issued and sold, and the said qualified voters of said town of Princess Anne shall determine at said election by ballot, whether said bonds or any of them shall be issued as aforesaid, and the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall prepare ballots for said election, having printed thereon the words "For re-funding bond issue" and "Against refunding bond issue," with a square after said words in each case so that the voter may determine by a cross mark in one of said squares whether he wishes to vote for or against said proposed bond issue; and the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall give at least two weeks notice by publication in one or more newspapers published in said town of Princess Anne, of the time and place where said vote will be taken and the purpose of said balloting, and if a majority of the votes cast at said election be in favor of said bond issue then this Act and the provisions thereof shall become effective on the first day of June, nineteen hundred and thirty-three; and if a majority of said votes be against said bond issue then this Act shall be null and ineffective.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 21, 1933.