

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the existence of said corporation is hereby made perpetual.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 595.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 168 and 170 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes," sub-title "State Tax Commission," fixing the salary of the Supervisors of Assessments and prescribing the duties thereof.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 168 and 170 of Article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Revenue and Taxes," sub-title "State Tax Commission," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

168. The Supervisors of Assessments shall have general supervision over the assessment of all property in the County or City for which they are appointed. They shall have power and are charged with the duty, to recommend assessments to the County Commissioners or other authority as required by law, and shall be charged with the duty and shall use all due diligence in listing escaped and/or new property and recommending a proper assessment thereon to the boards of County Commissioners or other authority and shall co-operate with the respective boards of County Commissioners or other assessing authorities in obtaining fair and equitable assessments and shall have power, and are charged with the duty, to appeal to the State Tax Commission from any and all assessments or rulings which such supervisors shall consider improper when made by the several boards of County Commissioners in the Counties or the Appeal Tax Court in Baltimore City. They shall visit each district of the County or City for which they are appointed at frequent intervals, obtaining all necessary data and information as to the valuation and existence of property subject to taxation, keep posted on