

this Act shall operate as an amendment to such Act to the extent of such increase. Any item of an appropriation hereinafter made providing for any salary not fixed by the Constitution of the State may be altered or changed with the consent of the Governor by the filing of an amended schedule as hereinafter set out.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That no State department, board, commission, officer, institution, or other agency, shall exceed the amount of its appropriation made herein, except in the manner and to the extent for which provision is made in Section Three and Sections 11, 11a and 11b hereof. If any such State department, board, commission, officer, institution or other agency shall otherwise exceed the amount of its appropriation there shall be no reimbursement of such excess nor shall there be any liability or obligation upon the State to make any appropriation hereafter to meet such deficit, and the officer or members of such board, commission, department or agency, or of the governing body of such State institution who have made any such excessive expenditures, shall, in the discretion of the Governor, be deemed guilty of neglect of official duty and shall be subject to removal therefor.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the items and amounts which are hereafter set out to show the methods of making up any appropriation do not constitute appropriations, but represent the initial plan of disbursement and apportionment of the appropriations of which they are part. All departments, boards, commissions, institutions, or officers shall submit in writing to the Governor an amended itemized schedule for the disbursement to be made by it or him, prior to the beginning of each fiscal year for which the apportionment is made. If the Governor shall approve such amended itemized schedule he shall transmit the same, with his certificate of approval, to the Comptroller, and thereafter such appropriation shall be paid out in accordance with said amended itemized schedule. Each appropriation shall be paid out only in accordance with the schedule therefor, if any, unless such schedule be amended within the limits of such appropriation in the following manner.

The Senate of Maryland of the General Assembly of 1935 may by resolution provide for or authorize the amendment of its schedule.
