

departments, boards, commissions and officers of the State, and the respective schools and institutions thereof. No sum or sums shall be allocated unless, and until, the Board shall be convinced beyond all reasonable doubt by any such officer, agency or institution of the State, that a sum or sums is necessary to enable such officer, agency or institution to perform the most essential functions for which such officer, agency or institution of the State was created. All allocations and expenditures approved by the Board shall be reported by the Board to the next regular session of the General Assembly. In the event there is an unexpended or unobligated balance of said funds, the same shall revert to the General Treasury.

SEC. 11-B. And be it further enacted, That the Emergency Contingent Reserve Fund of $250,000.00 for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1933, and ending September 30, 1934, and the Emergency Contingent Reserve Fund of $250,000.00, for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1934, and ending September 30, 1935, as hereinafter set forth is appropriated for the Emergency Contingent use of the respective departments, boards, commissions and officers of the State, and the respective schools and institutions thereof. The Board of Public Works is hereby authorized and empowered to allocate such funds and supervise the expenditure of the same among the respective departments, boards, commissions and officers of the State, and the respective schools and institutions thereof. No sum or sums shall be allocated by the Board unto any officer, agency or institution of the State, unless and until the Board shall be convinced beyond all reasonable doubt by such officer, agency or institution that an emergency exists and that a sum or sums is necessary to enable such officer, agency or institution to perform the most essential functions for which such office, agency or institution was created. All allocations and expenditures approved by the Board shall be reported by the Board to the next regular session of the General Assembly. In the event there is an unexpended or unobligated balance of said funds, the same shall revert to the General Treasury.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That after the payment of the specific appropriations hereinafter listed and made, there is hereby appropriated out of any excess in the State Treasury during the two fiscal years ending September 30th, 1935, the sum of $100,000.00 for the use of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1933, if called in
