

and they shall make a list of those who, in their opinion, may be disqualified thereon as voters, and they shall deliver such list to the Clerk of the Town who shall forthwith send written notice by mail to all persons whose names are so given to him, notifying them to be and appear before the officers of registration on the next succeeding revision day to show cause, if any they have, why their names should not be stricken from the lists of qualified voters of the Town of Westernport, and the said Clerk shall certify to the registration officers under oath the fact that such notices were mailed and the time thereof. For the purpose of revising such registration lists and striking therefrom the names of those no longer qualified to vote in said town, the registration officers shall sit one day each election year, known as Revision Day, to be selected by the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport and which shall be not less than five days prior to the election. Notice of the same shall be given at the same time and manner as notice of the preceding registration sitting. It will be the duty of the registration officers on such day to strike from the lists all those to whom notice has been mailed by the Clerk as ordered, who do not appear before them at that time and show cause why their names should not be stricken off the lists of qualified voters or who have not otherwise shown to them their qualifications as qualified voters, provided such notice has been mailed by the Clerk at least ten days before Revision Day. At the time of holding any election in said Town of Westernport the officers of registration shall attend with and have in charge the lists of qualified voters, registered and revised by them.

646. The said Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport shall appoint every election year at least two days before the day of election, three judges to hold elections; said judges shall keep the polls open from nine o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the afternoon and shall conduct the said election in the same manner in which the judges of election are now directed to conduct elections for State and county officials, as far as may be practicable, after making oath before some Justice of the Peace for Allegany County that they will only permit those to vote whose names appear upon the registration lists as duly qualified voters, and the said judges shall make their returns as to the votes cast and persons elected at said election under hands and seals, to the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport and to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland.
