

County upon a note or notes which may be issued hereunder, whether said note or notes be original or renewal.

151B. The said County Commissioners of Kent County are hereby authorized and empowered to sell the note or notes issued under the provisions of Section 151A, either at public or private sale, for the most money which can be obtained for the same, provided that no private sale of said note or notes shall be for less than par, and, if at public sale, under such conditions and terms as said County Commissioners of Kent County may prescribe.

151C. In order to pay the said note or notes which may be issued from time to time under the provisions of the two preceding Sections, together with the interest thereon, the County Commissioners of Kent County are hereby authorized and directed to pay the same out of the taxes collected in said County in the year in which said note or notes may from time to time be issued and/or fall due, and if the taxes so collected as aforesaid shall be insufficient for the purpose, the said County Commissioners of Kent County are hereby authorized and directed to levy upon all the assessable property in said County a sum sufficient to pay the said note or notes together with all interest accrued thereon.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1933.
