

for election district number one, not less than one nor more than two justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables; for election district number two not less than one nor more than two justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables; for election district number three, not less than one nor more than two justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables; for election district number four, not less than one nor more than two justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables; for election district number five, not less than one nor more than two justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables; for election district number six, not less than one nor more than three justices of the peace and not less than one nor more than two constables. One of the constables appointed in each district shall receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars in lieu of all other fees and compensation, except mileage as provided in Section 235A, said salary to be payable in quarterly installments by the County Commissioners, and the County Commissioners shall designate the constable to receive the aforesaid annual salary of three hundred dollars. Each of the constables in each of said districts appointed to receive the aforesaid annual salary of three hundred dollars shall quarterly, accounting from the date of his qualification, file with the County Commissioners of Howard County an account, verified by his oath, of all fees allowed and collected by him pursuant to law during the preceding quarter, and each of said constables shall at the time of filing said account pay over to the County Commissioners the whole of said fees so allowed and received, the same to be appropriated for the general expenses of the County.

In addition to the other duties imposed by law upon constables, the said constables of Howard County designated as aforesaid to receive annual salaries of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) shall have the power, authority and duty to summons jurors upon request of the Sheriff, and said designated constables shall be subject to the call of the Court at each term of the Court and shall render such services from day to day as the Court may direct; provided, however, that said constables shall not be entitled to any extra or additional compensation for so summoning jurors and/or rendering services upon such call of the Court.

293. Sheriff of Howard County shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars from and after the first